

Transfer Authority

Before completing the Transfer Authority, please read the important information below.

This form allows you to transfer your other super directly into Spectrum Super. Complete this form and provide certified identification documents.

Benefits to consolidating your super

Avoid duplicate costs: by moving all of your super to your Spectrum Super account, you may save on fees.

Keep better track of your super: with one account to manage, you can more easily see how your super is performing.

Hassle free transfer: transferring money to your Spectrum Super account is easy – Spectrum Super does all the work for you.

Additional information

Change of name or signing on behalf of applicant

If you have changed your name or are signing on behalf of the applicant, you will need to provide a certified linking document. A linking document is a document that proves a relationship exists between two (or more) names. The following table contains information about suitable linking documents.

Purpose	Suitable linking documents
Change of name	Marriage certificate, deed poll or change of name certificate from a Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Office
Signed on behalf of the applicant	Guardianship papers or Power of Attorney

What happens to your future employer contributions?

Using this form to transfer your benefits will not change the fund to which your employer pays your contributions. Using this form may close the account from which you are transferring your benefits from.

If you wish to change the fund to which your contributions are being paid, you will need to speak to your employer about Choice of Fund. Visit www.superchoice.gov.au or call the Australian Taxation Office on 13 10 20 for the appropriate forms and information about whether you are eligible to choose the fund to which your employer contributions are made.

What happens if you do not quote your tax file number?

You are not obligated to provide your tax file number (TFN) to your super fund. However, if you do not provide your TFN, your fund may be taxed at the highest marginal tax rate plus the Medicare levy on contributions made to your account in the year, compared to the concessional tax rate of 15%. Your fund may deduct this additional tax from your account.

If your super fund does not have your TFN, you will not be able to make personal contributions to your super account. Choosing to quote your TFN will also make it easier to keep track of your super in the future.

Under the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993, your super fund is authorised to collect your TFN, which will only be used for lawful purposes. These purposes may change in the future as a result of legislative change. The TFN may be disclosed to another super provider when your benefits are being transferred, unless you request in writing that your TFN not be disclosed to any other trustee.

Lost track of your other super?

Not sure if you have other super? Many people forget to roll their accounts over when they change jobs. The Australian Tax Office's free Superseeker service can help you uncover lost accounts (you'll need to supply your name, date of birth and tax file number).

- Online: visit the Superseeker homepage at www.ato.gov.au/super (click on "Find your lost super").
- By phone: call 13 28 65.
- By paper: download the 'Searching for Lost Super' form from the Superseeker homepage.
